Standard Chartered Senior Credit Officer for Nigeria & West Africa visits Cameroon

Douala, 29 July 2021: Mandela Otaru, Senior Credit Officer for Standard Chartered Bank Nigeria and West Africa arrived in Douala on Monday 26 July 2021 for a five days visit.

Mandela has been working with Standard Chartered Bank since 2006. A seasoned banker with significant depth and knowledge on Finance, Strategy and Credit Risk Management acquired over his 19 years' experiences across multiple markets, including Nigeria, South Africa, and Singapore.

During his visit, he will be holding strategic discussions with key stakeholders of the Bank including clients. Mandela will also interact with the Management and staff of Standard Chartered Cameroon and visit some of the clients' offices and facilities.

As the Bank's most senior person heading the Credit approval chain in West Africa, Mandela's visit emphasizes the Bank's commitment to provide support both to the sovereign and to clients within the Cameroon corporate and institutional banking business and to continuously create value chains that drive commerce, trade and international investments to this important segment which is key to the development of the country.

Commenting on his visit, Idrissa Kamara, CEO of Standard Chartered Bank Cameroon, said "Standard Chartered Bank remains committed to the Government and people of Cameroon and will continue to leverage our Cluster, Regional and Global capabilities and contribute positively to Cameroon socio-economic growth"
